THROUGH THESE PORTALS

Today pass the students of Madison County High School through these portals. For some it will be the beginning of a new experience; for others, five years of hard work will be over and they will make their own beginning in the modern world of tomorrow. The keys of learning, wisdom, and truth, that unlock these portals of opportunity, are given to the students by their teachers, by their parents, and by their own initiative. Now that these portals are open to them, the choice is theirs to make. Today, the decisions they make will affect their future high school careers; tomorrow, the decisions they make will affect the world in which they live. By passing through these portals day after day, we hope the experiences they have gained and shared with others will mean much in later years and enable them to live richer, fuller lives.

Our high divorce rate, our overcrowded mental institutions, and our overworked courts would indicate that our citizens are making too many bad choices. No people have ever had so much from which to choose. It would seem that we must not only distinguish the poor from the good, but the better from the best. We must learn to see subtle differences in reading, viewing, and personal conduct.

Taste has been described as "discriminations many times exercised," and George Washington said, "Let us raise a standard to which the wise and honest repair". You seniors can raise the standards in our society only by your day by day selections of the better from the best.

FACULTY "SNAPS"

Mrs. Lohr and Mrs. Finks, teaching has its compensa-
tions sometimes, huh?
Come on, Mr. O'Neill and
Mr. Neff, "bottoms up"!!

Offers, offers, offers!!
Mr. Duval, why WON'T you let the Band play at Carnegie Hall?!

All right, "Bear", we want to know--just how many coffee breaks DOES this one make for today?!

Caught you in the act,
Miss Sterrett!! That
mop makes a "mighty handy partner" when it comes to practicing
the latest dance steps,
yes?!

A dozen eggs, milk,
bread---is that your grocery list for this week, Miss Aylor?

SENIOR SNAPSHOTS

Which of you Seniors is Cinderella?! Larry impatiently waits his turn at the golden slipper, but it seems as though Marietta thinks it fits her. "Prince Charming Clore" surely is having a hard time finding his Princess!!

Flattery will get you nowhere, Betty!! Miss Pattie knows that's not your lunch ticket!

Rae Dove and James Hiram present their reasons to support the argument that "Red China should NOT be admitted to the UN", while Brian waits his turn to discuss the opposite side. This debate, along with others, took place in Miss Huckstep's Government class.

Seniors file into the Christmas assembly as the underclassmen stand.

Dorothy Collier, with the aid of an opaque machine, tells the English Class about the Elizabethan period, especially their costumes.

JUNIOR SNAPSHOTS

Tommy Utz, Junior Class President, presides over one of the many class meetings the hard-working Juniors have had this year. I wonder-could the topic of their discussion possibly be the Junior-Senior Prom?

Coach Mitchell hands John Wayne Jarrell, a Varsity End, an Award in football at one of the first Assemblies of the year.

Mrs. Margaret Jones, Carolyn Hawkins, and other juniors sell concessions at M.C.H.S. Homecoming Game to the crowd of onlookers and fans. The Junior Class used this as one means of raising money for their activities.

Junior Beta Club members, Linda Aylor, and Barbara Reddish, play a flute and clarinet duet at the annual Beta Club Banquet held in the M.C.H.S. cafeteria.

Roger Berry, narrator for the French-Latin version of the Christmas story, presented in Assembly, recites the familiar Christmas story in Latin.

WORKERS TACKLE THEIR JOBS

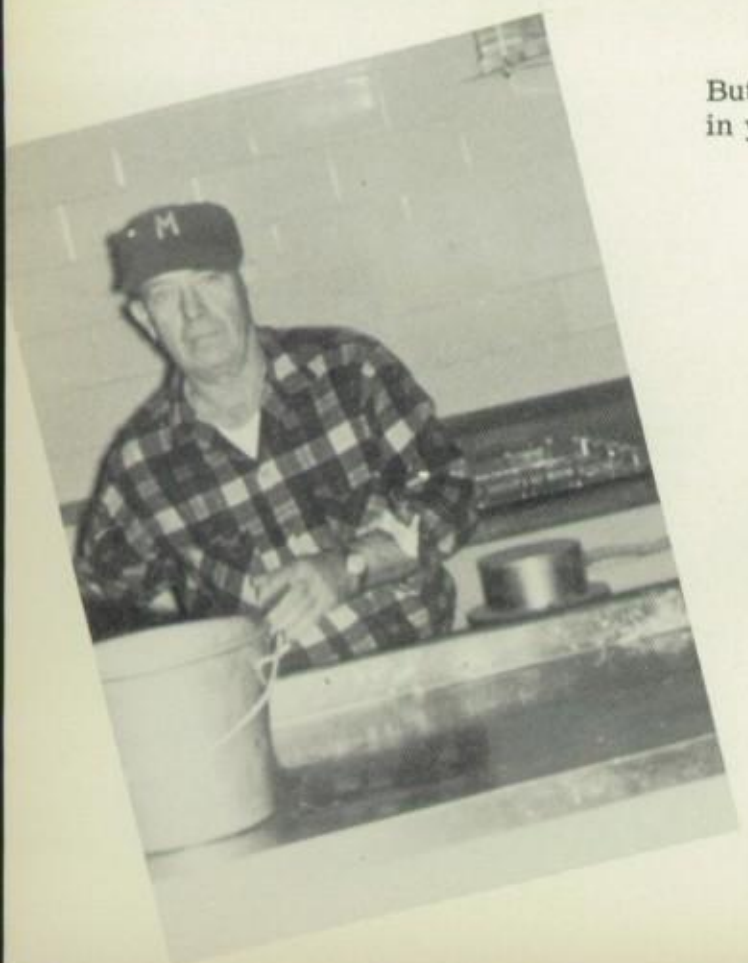

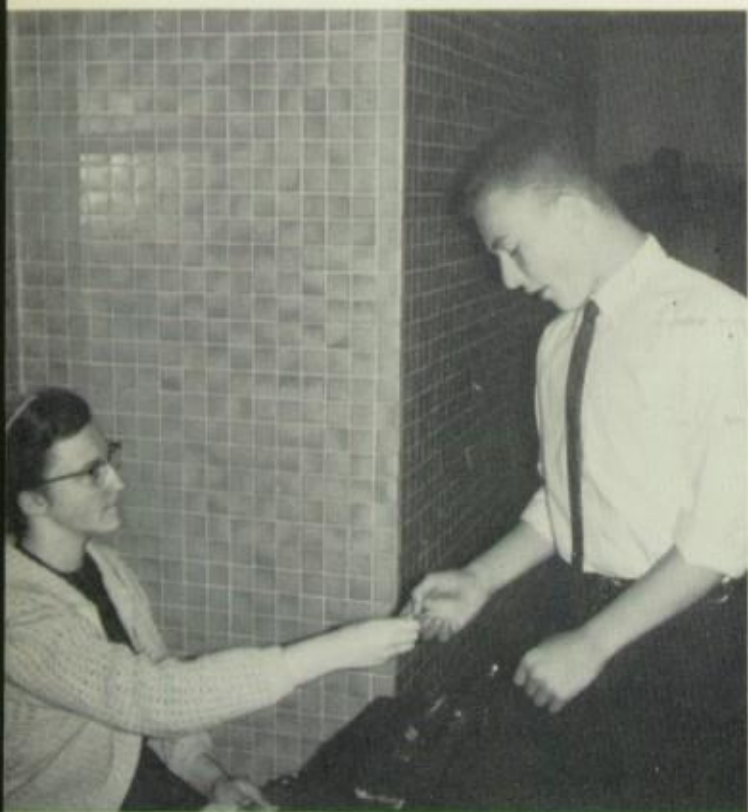

Mrs. Myers, please don't take my cake back!

Gertrude and Geraldine perform another one of their major operations.

Aw, come on, Margaret--lunch tickets don't cost $15.00.

Randolph, are you going to send Tommy up after the flag?

Hilda, where are my green stamps?

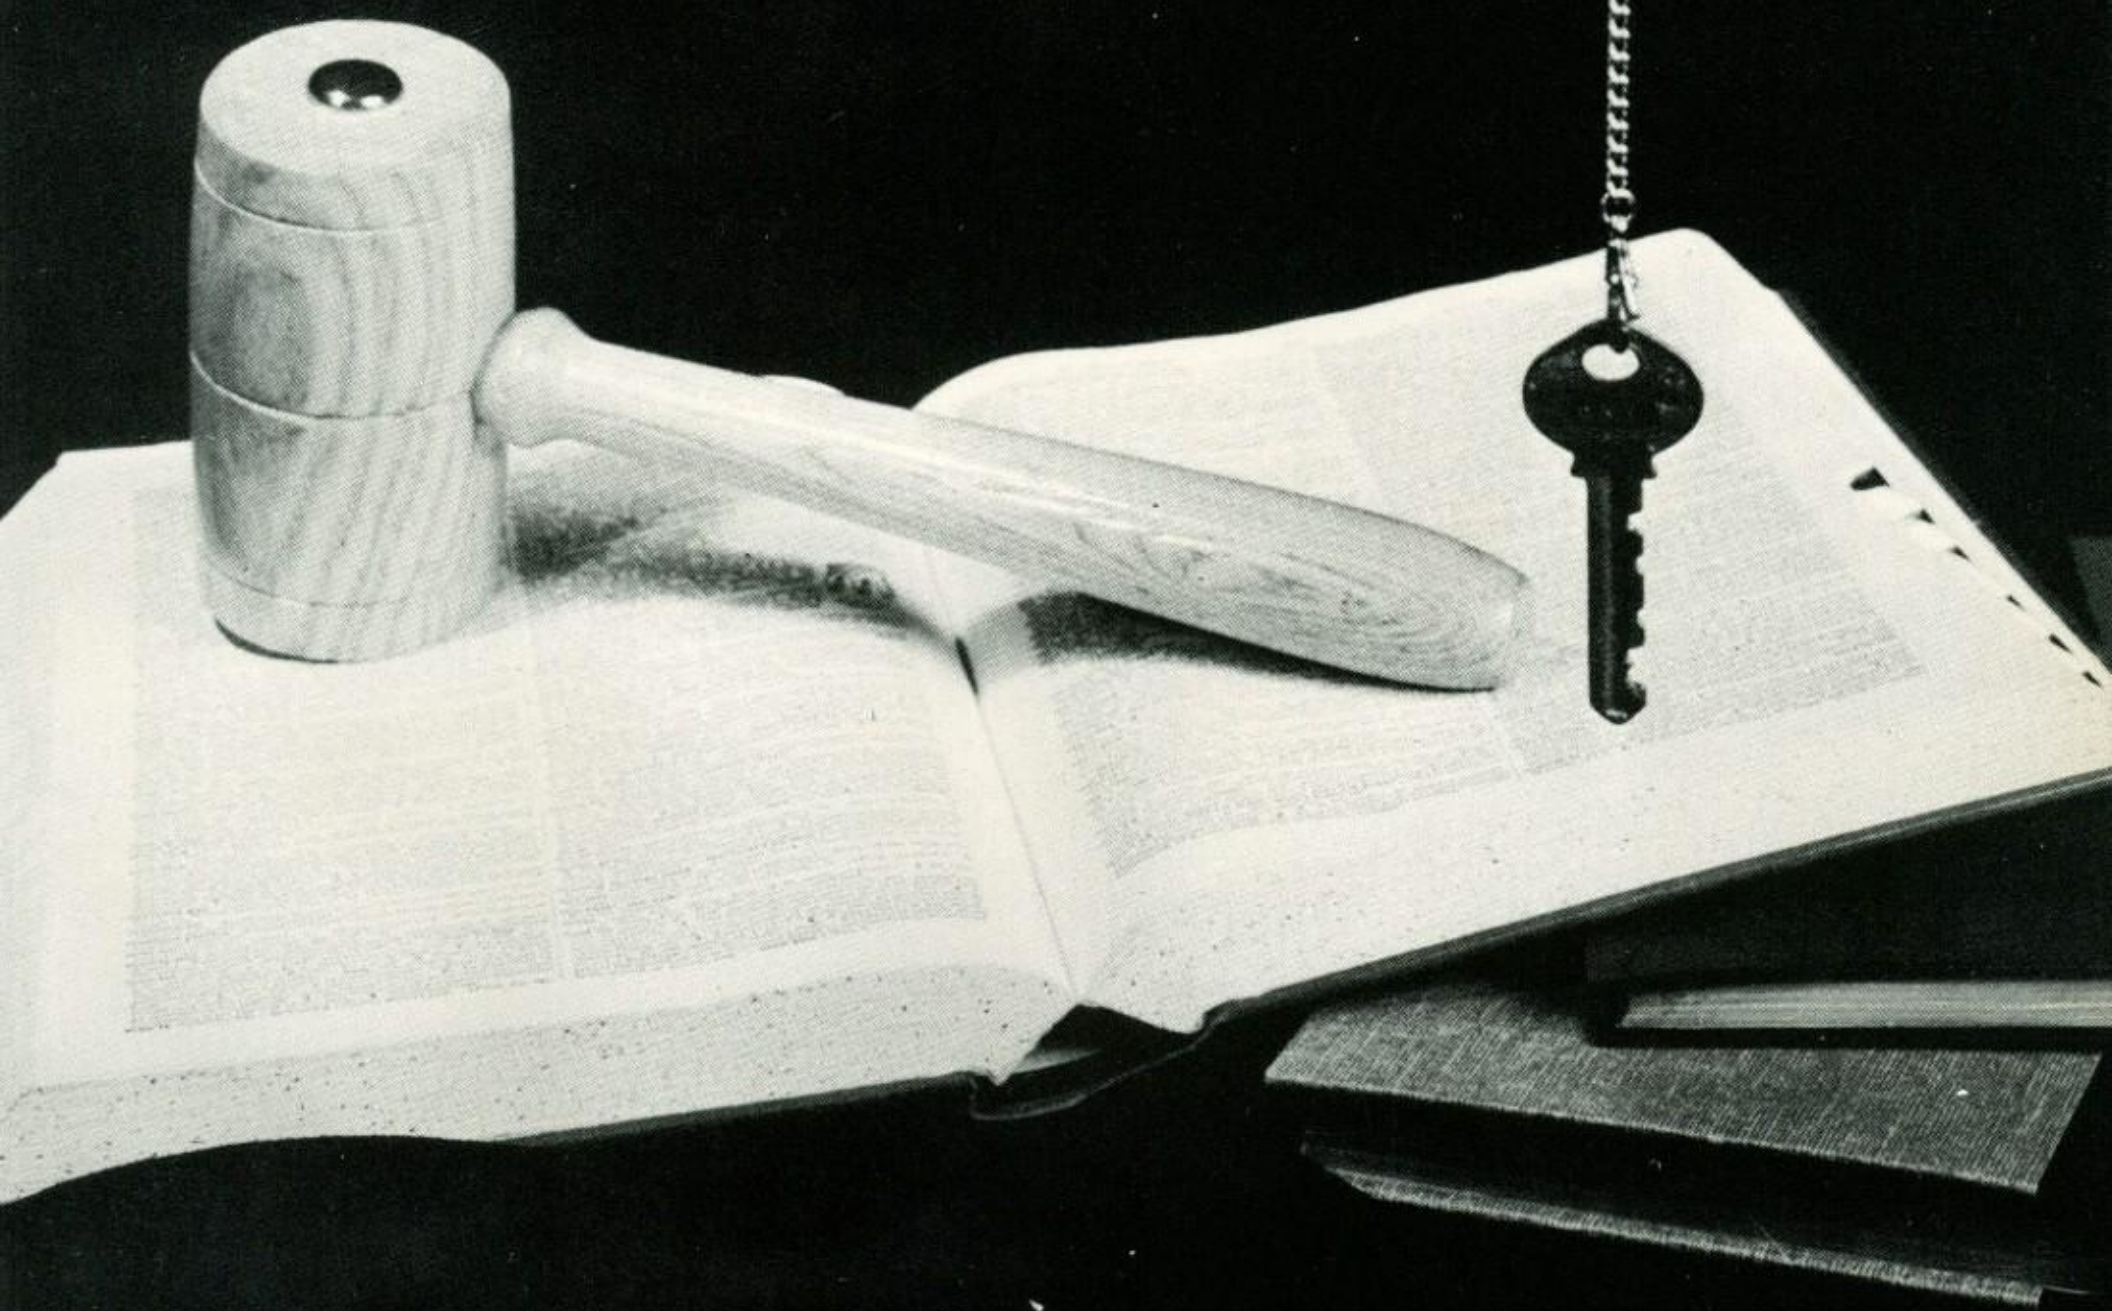

But, Mr. Butler, why can't we see what's in your bucket?

Mr. Racer and Mr. Carpenter, are you "hashing" over the latest gossip?

HOMECOMING - 1963

QUEEN ARLENE SMITH

HOMECOMING GAME

M.C.H.S. alumni and fans watch anxiously as the home team advances the ball closer to another touchdown. The "Mountaineers" soared to victory over Miller with a score of 25-6--Homecoming Day is off to a glorious start!

After much suspense, Arlene Smith was announced Queen--co-captains Brockman and Dodson make it official, while the M.C.H.S. Band looks on.

Queen Arlene Smith, flanked by Co-captains Dodson and Brockman, smiles happily at the Homecoming crowd as the Band plays "I Could Have Danced All Night."

Homecoming is climaxed as Queen Arlene Smith is crowned by co-captain Monte Brockman.

Not to be outdone, co-captain Shirley Dodson has the pleasure of kissing the Queen.

AT THE HOMECOMING DANCE

M.C. for the evening is Phillip Coppage, graduate of the class of 1953.

Music is furnished by the "Diplomats" from Harrisonburg.

The Queen sits happily on her throne waiting for the first dance.

Everyone watches as Queen Arlene Smith and Co-Captain Brockman enjoy the first dance.

Each year the S.C.A. sponsors a Sadie Hawkins Dance. Senior Judy Updike was chosen by the judges on the basis of her costume and appearance as Miss Sadie Hawkins.

SPECIAL—1963 - '64

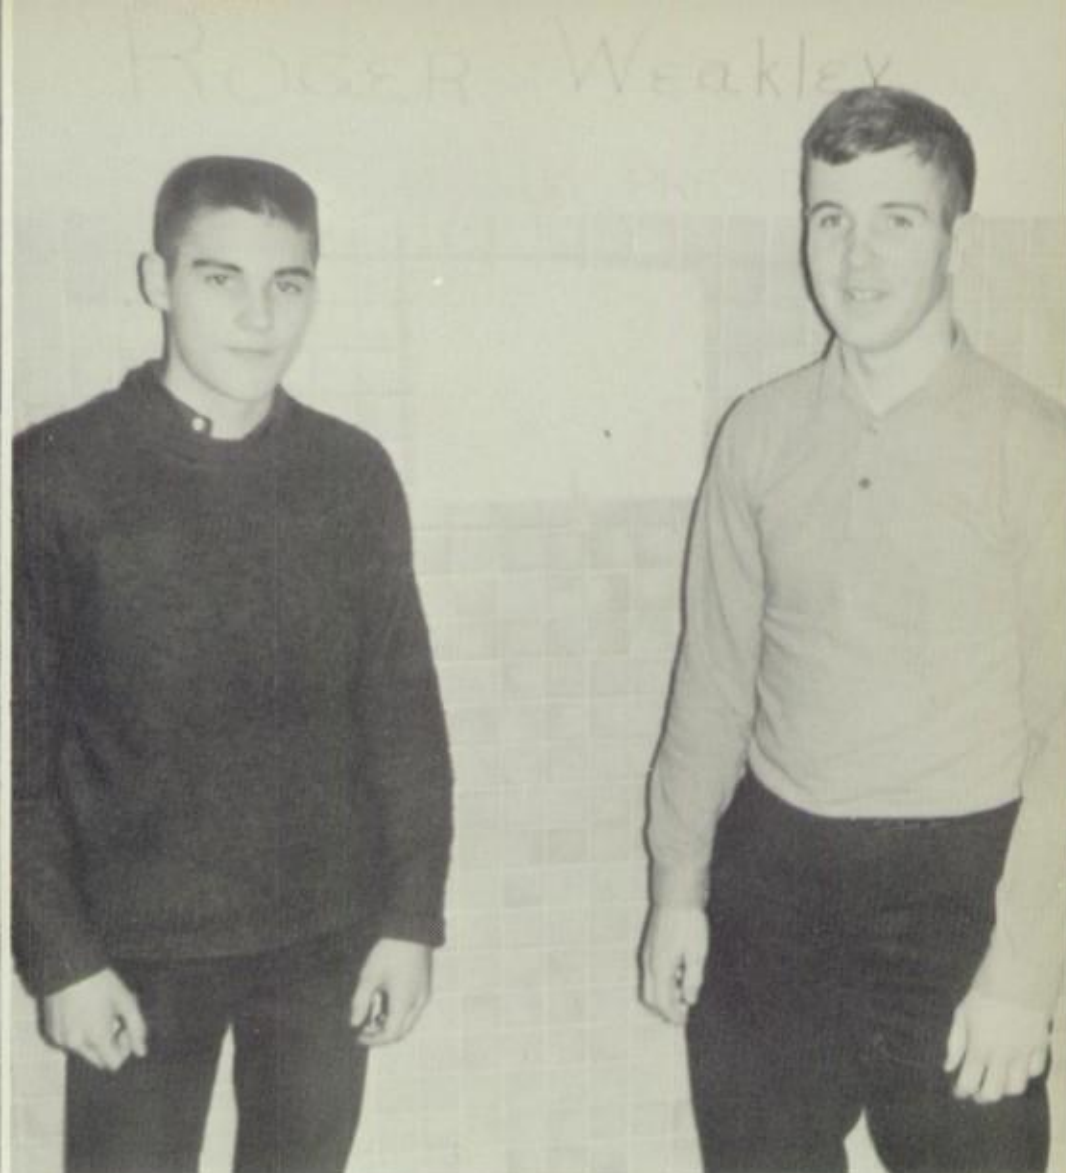

After strong competition for two weeks during the Magazine Drive, Becky Estes was awarded a trophy for being high salesman of the drive with sales over $100.

Last year's King & Queen of the Valentine's Dance crown Brenda Gaar and Steve Lohr, their successors, at this year's dance held Feb. 14 in the cafeteria.

Roger Weakley and James Dyer, candidates for SCA President, take time out of their busy campaigns to pose for a picture. The students voted for Roger Weakley as the new S.C.A. President.

Running for S.C.A. Vice-President were Robert Nelson Lohr and Joe Goodall. After a week's campaign, Joe Goodall was elected.

HIGHLIGHTS

Margaret Leake and Tommy Utz, co-chairmen of the Prom Committee, plan for the hard job of decorating and organizing the Prom.

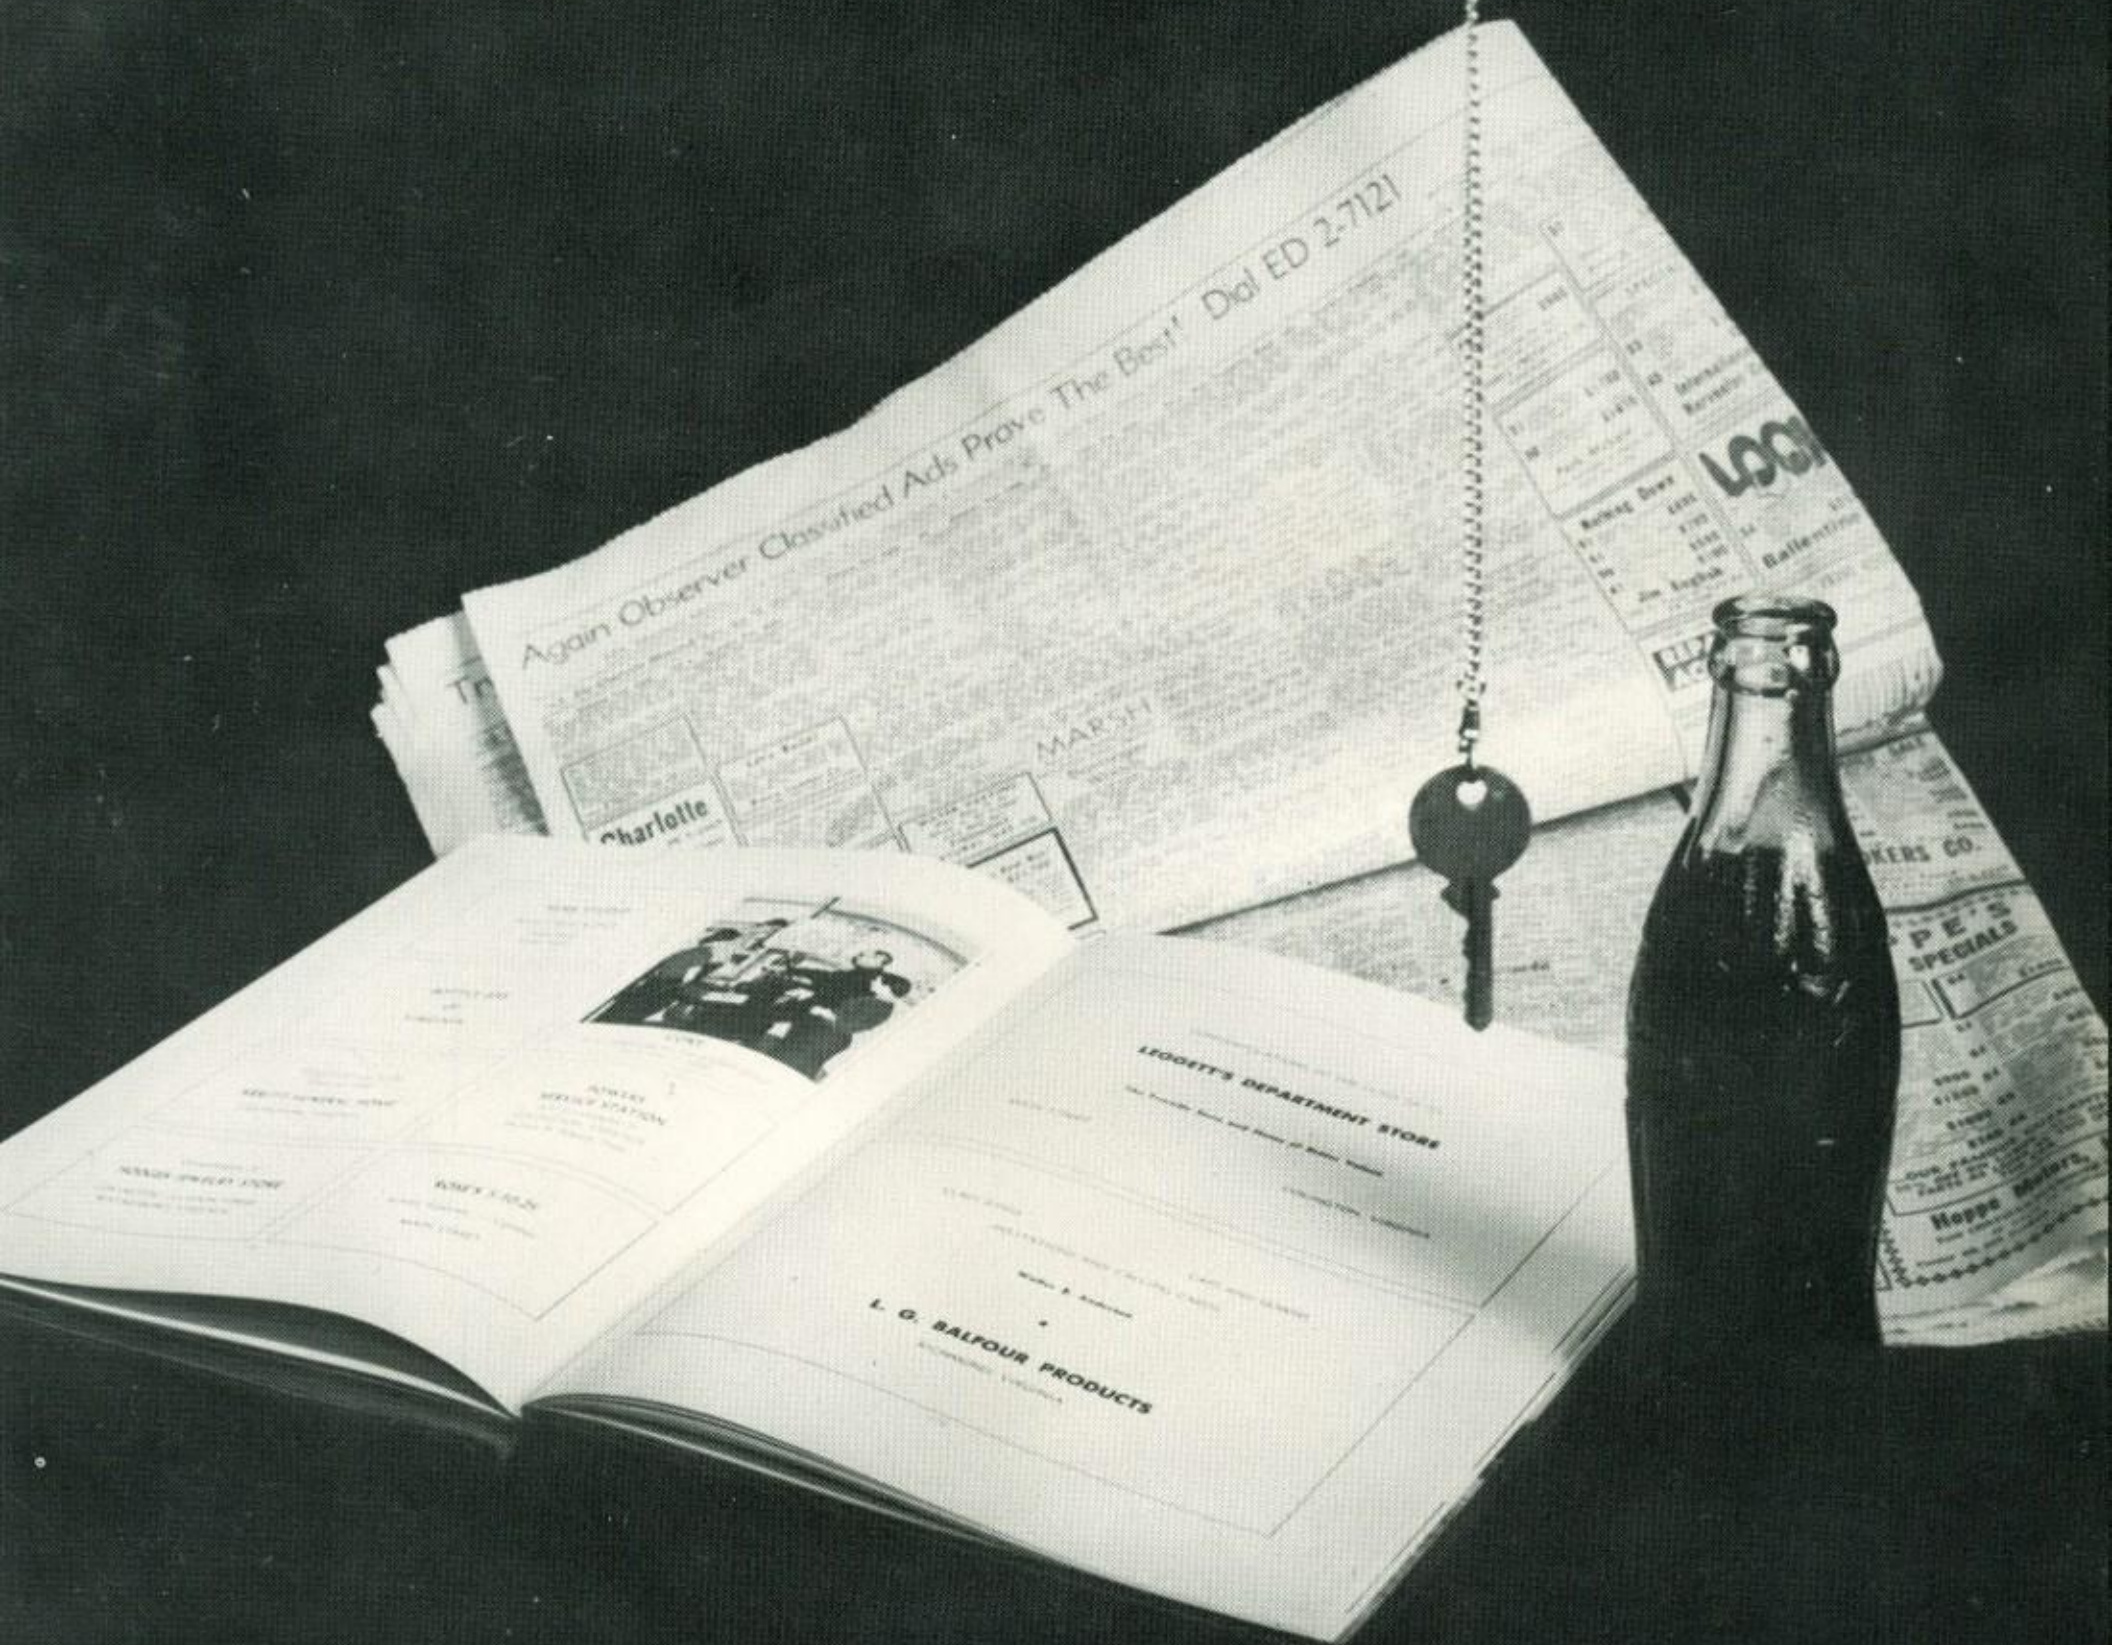

CLOSING

DEDICATED TO THE SENIORS

As the doors close for the session of 1963-'64, we, the seniors of Madison County High School, close another chapter of our lives and store it away under the heading, "Our High School Days." As the doors opened for the first time in September of 1959, we entered as eighth graders. Now, as Seniors, we leave, having the honor of being the first class to finish our high school career here.

ADVERTISING

Today, you saved a child's life . . .

Yes, it's YOU we're speaking to . . . And, a man in his eighties or a teen-ager with a rare disease is living a normal life today, because of you.

Maybe you've never seen these people, but they owe their lives to you. The blood you donated last week and last year gave them life and hope.

We'd like for you to tell your friends how easy and painless it is to donate blood. Perhaps they too would like to give the fight of life itself.
